FAMINE STALKS UNMOLESTED IN CITY OF VIENNA

Dr. Margullos, Leading Meteorologist Falls Victim of Starvation

SITUATION TERRIBLE

City Has Become Known As Community Of Death.

London, Nov. 18.—Dr. Margullos, one of the world's leading meteorologists, is dead in Vienna. He starved to death.

Extraordinary as it may seem, there is nothing unusual in this brief news item. Death from starvation is a daily occurrence in Vienna, once the gayest, most light-hearted capital of central Europe. It is "routine news" for the newspapers of that city. The columns that used to be filled with advertisements of pastry and dainties and "cuisines" which made Vienna the mecca of gourmands, are black with death notices these days, and ninety out of every hundreds deaths are due to under-nourishment or outright starvation. Austria ("Hungry") is what the shadow of the proud Hapsburg empire is called in the Vienna newspapers. Vienna itself, where nearly one third of Austria's population is concentrated, has come to be known as the city of death. Men, women and children, like flies there and always it is the same story:

Starvation.

Was 65 Years Old.

Dr. Margullos, whose case is merely an illustration, was 65 years old. He had nothing to support him except a pension, which at the present exchange amounted to about $3 a month. There are thousands like him in Vienna, men and women once wealthy and of eminent ranking in the world of science, art, literature, now living in attics and cellars, existing literally on crumbs, slowly wilting away, and actually longing for death because it means liberation from their sufferings.

And the children of Austria! Theirs is a ghastly story. "There are 24,000 families without a home in Vienna," cables Jacob Reumann, the city's mayor, who along with other prominent Austrian officials, responded to a request of the International News Service for a statement on the situation. "These families are respectable people whom we have to house in makeshift shanties, cellars and old rail cars."

With the ensuing winter, hunger's most formidable ally in its war of extinction has begun to make itself felt.

"The present Austria," says Mayor Reumann, "cannot grow more than three months' supply of her cereal requirements and cannot mine more than ten percent of the coal she wants."

This plight which the statesmen of Europe have begun to regard as the most appalling situation on the continent because of its inherent menace of pestilence and chaos, the leaders of the stricken republic see but one ray of hope: That of American help.

YOUTHS IMPLICATED IN THEFT ARRESTED: LOOT OVER MILLION

Four Of Five Bandits Believed Responsible Arrested.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 18.—Over a million dollars in securities of the loot in the Omaha mail car robbery, was recovered in a lake near Council Bluffs today. Police are dragging the lake in the belief that the bandits, finding it impossible to dispose of the bonds, threw the remainder into the water also.

Four of the five youths believed to be implicated have been arrested. They are Merle Phillips, 20; Orville Phillips, 7; Fred Poffenberger, 19, and—Roberts, 21, arrested today. All are railroad employees. Three have confessed to taking part in the plot.

TREATS OUTBREAK AT ACADEMY AS DISEASE

Washington, Nov. 18.—Secretary of the Navy Daniels has decided to treat disobedience at the naval academy as an infectious disease. He announced this morning that as the epidemic of disorder seems prevalent among the three higher classes, the fourth class had been ordered segregated so they would not catch it.

HARDING OFFERS REMEDY FOR INDUSTRIAL AND ECONOMIC ILLS

PRESIDENT-ELECT DELIVERS ADDRESS IN NEW ORLEANS

More Production, Less Waste Suggested By Senator.

URGES CO-OPERATION

Prosperity For All Sections Desired Says Speaker.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 18.—President-elect Harding will not stop at Vera Cruz, it was officially announced today. The steamship company was unable to make arrangements to stop the boat at that port.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 18.—"Neither our own nor the world's salvation is to be worked out through any patent nostrum," President-elect Warren G. Harding declared in a speech before the chamber of commerce here this afternoon in which he discussed the industrial and economic situation.

"One hundred percent production, minimized waste," and "rational readjustment" offer the remedy for the industrial and economic ills of the United States, the president-elect said.

After declaring that there has been a "wild contemplation of earnings, whether in wages or dividends," Senator Harding made an appeal for the "ideal relationship where men may labor with a soul in their tasks," and for a realization of "the dignity of productive labor."

"Concord among Americans, south, central and north," was urged by the president-elect on the eve of his sailing for Panama.

"Somehow I feel that the western hemisphere is our special field of influence and trade," Senator Harding said. "Our trade routes by sea to the south ought to be as dependable as our railroads at home. Bind our friendship with the ties of trade and we shall make it indissoluble."

People Resolute.

"Our great assurance at home lies in a virile, intelligent resolute people," the president-elect said. "In a land unravaged by war, at enmity with no people, envying none, coveting nothing, seeking no territory, striving for no glories which do not become a righteous nation."

"This republic cannot, will not fail, if each of us but does his part. If we but work, and use thrifitily and seek the understanding which reveals mutuality of interest, no difficulties can long abide. We cannot hope for war activities and excesses and pre-war costs but we can give and take and find the rational readjustment. Such a solution cannot come out of the greedy thoughts of the profiteer or the revolutionary agitation of those who would destroy. These are but surface disturbances. We choose the deep and every onward currents of normal America for the course of the Republic."

We want good fortune a common possession in America. We want the cotton grower of the south to have his becoming reward with the wool grower and the wheat farmer of the north. We want southern factories to be attuned to the music of the mills of the north. We want your ports to send their cargoes under the American flag, to bear the messages of peace and good will to all parts of the earth. There is no sectionalism in righteous American ambitions."

The boy is described as being about five feet, six inches tall, with light hair and brown eyes. When he left home he was wearing a blue suit, a pink shirt, a white tie and a mixed cap and mackinaw. The boy was a Freshman in high school.

G. R. Hisey, father of the missing lad, returned from Dayton at noon Thursday, where he had been searching for his son, but no information as to his whereabouts could be obtained from relatives and friends of the boy in that city.

Thursday afternoon, a posse organized by Pennsylvania Railroad Detective Cliff Latimer, started out in search of the boy. Reports that he had been seen Tuesday morning at the Baltimore & Ohio crossing at West Market street caused the party to go out the Dayton tracks of that road, and scour the woods and fields in the direction of Trebein. Owing to the number of hunters in the woods now, it was feared that the boy might have fallen a victim to stray shots if he had been chance in the woods along the right of way.

Mr. Hisey, father of the boy is a Pennsylvania yardmaster.

YOUTH SLAYS HIS FATHER IN HOME AT NIGHT WITH GUN

Crippled Son Murders Father Near Newark Late Wednesday.

Newark, O., Nov. 18.—Angus Irvine, 21, cripple, is in the Licking county jail today awaiting a preliminary hearing upon the charge of having murdered his father, ex-Judge Walter A. Irvine at their country home near here Tuesday night. The shot was fired from ambush. A warrant charging murder in the first degree will be sworn out some time today. Young Irvine since his arrest has maintained silence, but according to the story told by two brothers and one sister, the murderer was the result of a long standing quarrel within the family.

After he had killed his father, Angus gathered his brother Patrick, 12, his brother Archibald, 8, and his sister Sarah, 13, together and they all went to an upstairs room and went to bed, and to sleep, leaving the dead and bloody body of their father lying on the floor where he had fallen.

SEARCH FOR MISSING XENIA BOY MADE; LAST SEEN TUESDAY

Clarence Hisey Disappears From Home; Posse On Hunt.

Clarence Hisey, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert R. Hisey, 410 Cincinnati avenue, has been missing from his home since noon Tuesday, according to a report made to police Thursday morning.

The boy is described as being about five feet, six inches tall, with light hair and brown eyes. When he left home he was wearing a blue suit, a pink shirt, a white tie and a mixed cap and mackinaw. The boy was a Freshman in high school.

THREE SINN FEINERS SLAIN IN STREET

Cork, Nov. 8.—Three Sinn Feiners civilians were killed here today in reprisal for the shooting of Police Sergeant O'Donoghue. The police officer was shot to death in the street late yesterday.

O'Donoghue was on his way to the police barracks shortly after 6 o'clock when he was fired on by a small group of men who used revolvers. They escaped.

A PRACTICAL LESSON in thievery means more than just saving. It means to use all your money-making possibilities.

Renting a vacant room to a good tenant is an excellent example of that.

JOYCE IS ACQUITTED OF MURDER CHARGE BY CLEVELAND JURY

Five Ballots Taken Before the Decision Is Reached.

Cleveland, Nov. 18.—John W. Joyce, was acquitted on the charge of murder by a jury at 8:55 last night.

Five ballots were taken. The vote on the first ballot stood eight for acquittal, four for conviction. On the fourth ballot the vote stood 11 to 1 and the jury asked Judge Bermon for further instructions regarding Harold Kagi's last statement, which was not admitted in evidence. After receiving this, they returned to the jury room and quickly reached a verdict.

"The verdict is just," said Joyce as he wrung the hand of each juror, "I did not kill Kagi."

Joyce was arrested last May charged with having shot Harold C. Kagi, on the night of May 8 at the corner of Ninth and Euclid, the wound afterwards resulting in death. He was indicted and tried on a charge of murder in the second degree.

Bellefontaine, O., Nov. 18.—So far as known the first arrest made in Ohio under the Crabbe prohibition enforcement act, ratified at the November election, is that of Benjamin Smith of Cincinnati and Sidney, who pleaded guilty to violation of this new statute when arraigned before Judge J. C. Hover here.

Smith was fined $100 after acknowledging that it was through him that a group of local poker players obtained whiskey.

Joyce was arrested last May charged with having shot Harold C. Kagi, on the night of May 8 at the corner of Ninth and Euclid, the wound afterwards resulting in death. He was indicted and tried on a charge of murder in the second degree.

Bellefontaine, O., Nov. 18.—After sticking up John Sipuk, grocer, and taking $70 highwaymen shot up the place. Six hours later, police had David Jones, Barnes Scanty, a Frenchman, Irving Smith, under arrest and took not thinking about establishing a folk link at the county farm.

BOTH LEGS BROKEN WHEN HIT BY AUTO ON WILMINGTON PIKE

Robert K. Saum, 40, formeman of a Springfield tool shop, is recovering from two fractured legs sustained in an automobile accident on the Wilmington Pike Tuesday evening, at the McClellan Hospital here.

Saum's injuries consist of identical compound fractures of both bones of both legs below the knee, the broken bones protruding from the flesh when the man arrived at the hospital. The left leg is also fractured between the hip and knee.

The accident happened when Saum was crushed between his own machine and another on the Wilmington pike at the Caesarcreek bridge, Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock. Saum was returning with a party of hunters from Peebles, Ohio, and on discovering the sharp turn at the bridge, put on the brakes and in doing so killed his engine, one wheel going into the ditch. He alighted as another automobile approached and walked around back of the machine to flag coming car and ask for assistance. The second automobile struck Saum's machine in the rear, catching the man between the two cars and crushing his legs.

The injured man was brought to this city in an automobile and his injuries dressed at the hospital where he is still a patient. Saum's machine, a Ford was badly damaged, the rear end being smashed. The second machine, an Overland, had the radiator smashed. Both cars are at the Central Garage.

EAST END NEWS

William Blackwell of East Second Street is among the sick this week. Supt. Waltz will address the Parent-Teacher association at Lincoln Building, Friday, Nov. 19, at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. William Blackwell of East Second Street, met with a painful accident Monday. In attempting to open a can of hot water it exploded and the steam burst into her face causing a severe burn about the eyes and forehead. Medical attention was given promptly.

Mrs. Pearl Henderson, of East Main Street, in company with her sister-in-law, Miss Anna Henderson of Dayton, left Wednesday afternoon for Washington D. C. to be at the interment of the remains of her husband, Sergeant Joseph Henderson of the 372nd Infantry, Headquarters Co., who lost his life on the battlefield in France in the great World's War, May 18, 1918. He also had the honor of being the first colored soldier to die for Democracy. The body was shipped to this country and will be buried in the National Cemetery at Arlington Heights, Washington, Friday November 19. He also served in the Spanish American War and will long be remembered by his many friend and comrades.

In the beautiful little village of South Charleston, Ohio, the first district meeting of the Ohio branch of the Woman's Mite Missionary Society for this year was held.

APPETITE HAD GONE SHE FELT TIRED ALL THE TIME

Had become weak and nervous. Could not sleep well. Took Hypo-Cod

MUCH IMPROVED NOW

"I suffered from a weakened condition and nervousness. I would be hungry until I got to the table and then I couldn't eat. I was unable to work and had to hire it done. I felt tired all the time and couldn't sleep well, just twist and turn during the night. I had been a year this way and had taken medicine given by five different doctors," declared Mrs. Alexander whose address is given below.

"After I had taken only one bottle of Earle's Hypo-Cod I sleep all night now. My appetite is fairly good. I do all my work now, including my laundry, something I haven't been able to do for a long time. This new tonic has helped me more than all the other medicines I have taken," continued Mrs. Mayme Alexander, 91 Sprague St., Dayton, O.

When your system has become rundown and you don't feel like doing anything, are weak and nervous, you should go at once to the drug store and secure a bottle of this new and modern tonic, Earle's Hypo-Cod, that thousands of users have found so good according to their statements. It does the work so much quicker, is so much quicker, is so pleasant to take that even children like it, they say. Drugists, chemists and experts assert it is the most powerful reconstructive tonic of its kind made. Get a bottle today and give it a trial.

Earle's Hypo-Cod is sold here by all good druggists and the leading druggists in all nearby towns.

Sallie Watkins, presided. Mrs. Forbes, a student of Wilberforce, gave an interesting talk on West Africa, where she is preparing to go. She represented Mrs. Clark of Wilberforce, the president of the mission, who on account of illness was not able to be present.

Mrs. Dovie Nichols read a script from the voice of missions.

Miss Whitelaw, a young lady of South Charleston, read her first paper on missions, which was very good.

Mrs. Ethel Taylor represented the Missionary Society of Jamestown in a paper, subject "Lifting Christ," which was full of good practical thoughts. Before she read she sang "He Lifted Me" and it had the desired effect, we were both helped and lifted. Mrs. Ophelia Rogers sang two beautiful selections, "Just Where You Are," and "The Pentecostal Power." She sang with the spirit and feeling.

Those attending from Xenia were Mrs. Minnie Carroll, Dovie Nichols, Ophelia Rogers, Laura Ross, Celia Merritt, Ethel Taylor, Anna Jackson, Mrs. Mosby, Ollie Ward, Cora Hawkins, and Sallie Watkins, Mrs. Forbes from Wilberforce.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Buchwalter of West Third Street are receiving a visit from Mr. Buchwalter's mother, Mrs. C. H. McCracken of Belle Center, Ohio.

Facts for Sick Women

Reliable Information

All American women know of the great success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in restoring to health women who suffered from ailments peculiar to their sex, yet there are some who are skeptical and do not realize that all that is claimed for it is absolutely true—if they did, our laboratory would not be half large enough to supply the demand, though today it is the largest in the country used for the manufacture of one particular medicine.

The Facts contained in the following two letters should prove of benefit to many women:

BUFFALO, N. Y.—"I suffered with organic inflammation and displacement. When sitting had such pain and bending down that I was not able to stand up, and it hurt me to walk or go up or down stairs. I was going to a doctor without any results and he said the safest thing would be to have an operation. I met a lady who told me she had this operation and was not well until she took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

"I felt relief after taking two bottles of Vegetable Compound and I kept on with it until I was cured. I always use Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills and they are fine. Everything used to turn sour on my stomach and the Liver Pills relieved that."—Mrs. A. Roots, 533 Fargo Avenue, Buffalo, N. Y.

Don't use Golmar if you can find anything better!

We are not trying to induce you to sacrifice any advantages in using Golmar. We are not asking you to use it instead of something better.

But we claim that you cannot find anything better—we say that even the finest, freshest creamery butter is not better than Golmar.

We are trying to make you realize what thousands of other housekeepers know so well—that Golmar is just as good as creamery butter, in taste, in deliciousness, wholesomeness, and digestibility. We are trying to make you understand that you simply cannot tell any difference between them—no matter what test you make.

Golmar is churned daily and is always fresh when you get it. It stays fresh amply long enough for a small family to use a pound. It is made of the choicest cocoanut oils and the quality never varies. Scrupulously clean at all times because it is untouched by human hands in the manufacturing. And, of course, Golmar costs you less than you pay for creamery butter because of its vegetable origin.

Get a package of Golmar from your dealer today. Make it prove to your entire satisfaction that it is as good as creamery butter—if it doesn't your money will be refunded.

The Famous Golmar Test

Example No. 19

Golmar on Muffins

PLACE a pat of Golmar and one of fresh creamery butter side by side. Spread a part of a muffin with Golmar and the other portion with creamery butter. Now take a bite of one and then of the other. We challenge you to tell which is Golmar. Golmar is the equal of and is equalled only by fresh creamery butter.

The same coloring matter used in creamery butter is supplied with Golmar so you can color it at home and save the tax of 10 cents per pound which the Government would collect if Golmar were colored by the makers.

WEDDING AT SPRING VALLEY WEDNESDAY.

The wedding of Miss Laura Barley daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Barley of Spring Valley and Leroy Smith of this city took place at the home of the bride's parents in Spring Valley, at 4 o'clock, Wednesday afternoon.

The service was held in the living room of the Barley home, in front of the large mantle which was banked with pink and white carnations and ferns. Miss Barley wore white crepe de chine with trimmings of crystal, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. There were no attendants at the service, which was performed by the bride's pastor, Rev. C. M. Smith of the Spring Valley Methodist Church. Miss Ruth Faulkner played the wedding march from Mendelssohn.

Following the service a three course supper was served the guests, who numbered only the immediate families.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith left Wednesday night for Detroit, Michigan, where they will spend their honeymoon. Mrs. Smith's traveling suit was of reindeer silverstone with beaver trimmings, and she wore a small hat of the same shade.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith will make their home with Mr. Smith's mother, Mrs. John A. Smith of Hill street this city, upon their return from their wedding trip.

GIVE SURPRISE PARTY WEDNESDAY

About thirty friends and neighbors gave a surprise party, Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Tom Mason, on South Detroit Street, for Mr. and Mrs. Grover Mendenhall, who leave Monday for Florida. A two course supper was served to the guests by Mrs. Mason. Mr. and Mrs. Mendenhall are planning to make their future home in Florida.

B. & O. TRAIN HITS OIL COMPANY TRUCK

A truck belonging to the Columbus Oil Company was struck by a B. & O. freight train, at the crossing at Belden's Mill, Thursday morning at about 8 o'clock. The train was going about fifteen miles an hour and it is thought by those who witnessed the accident that the driver of the truck did not notice the approach of the train until too late to avoid the accident. An attempt was made by the driver to turn the truck into the driveway of the mill, but the cow catcher of the train hit the right side of the truck and completely demolished that side. The accident is said to have been a very narrow escape for the driver, whose name has not been learned. The truck was able to return to the city under its own power.

OHIO STATE TEAM LEAVES FOR URBANA

Columbus, O., Nov. 18.—Thirty five Ohio State football players will go to Urbana for possible participation in the contest Saturday with the Illinois team which will determine whether Ohio State gets the western conference championship. Following a brief signal this afternoon, 28 players will board special sleepers. They will spend tomorrow night at Danville, Ills., and go on to Urbana Saturday morning. Tomorrow night seven other players will leave here for Urbana.

HUSBANDS SUE COPS

Dayton, O., Nov. 18.—Claiming that three policemen entered their home at night and embarrassed them by compelling them to run through the place clad in their underclothing until they could produce their marriage licenses, C. J. Lucas and G. H. Shoemaker have asked court to allow them $5,000 apiece from each

MONDAY DESIGNATED AS BIG DAY IN RED CROSS DRIVE

Mondays has been chosen by the Greene County Chapters of the Red Cross, as the day on which will be launched a special effort by the chapters in the Fourth Roll Call membership drive of the Red Cross. Yellow Springs, Spring Valley, New Jasper, Osborn and Fairfield are organizing effective methods of producing the quota for memberships that have been assigned to their branches. Each town is responsible to the Xenia Chapter, but is taking the responsibility of securing their individual town quotas, and the roll call from each of Xenia surrounding towns, will be the result of the towns individual efforts.

Cedarville has reorganized the committees in charge of its roll call and a full quota is expected from this vicinity. Paul Cresswell a member of the local committee in charge of the drive, conferred with the workers at Osborn Wednesday, and discussed plans for renewed vigor there.

Sergeant Woodfill, the world war's greatest hero is the manager of the drive at Fairfield and Osborn. Sergeant Woodfill is connected with the Lake Division of the Red Cross and has been active in the roll call drive.

Yellow Springs surpassed the quota assigned there on last year's drive, and is expected by the local chapter to secure one of the largest memberships this year. The chairman of the Yellow Springs drive is Mrs. Theodore Neff.

Greene County Chapter is one of the most active in the Lake Division states the Lake Division News, a paper issued by the Lake Division at Cleveland, which is in charge of the different chapters located in Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky.

The quota for the 1920 Red Cross Call for Greene County is 8,000 members. In the 1919 drive the number of members gained by the Greene County chapter was 5,878 members.

WOMEN JURORS ARE PERMITTED TO SEW IN COURT

Cleveland, O., Nov. 18.—Women jurors may sew in court.

Under a decision by Judge Frank C. Phillips there is thus charted one of the rights of the newly enfranchised sex, while settling the dispute of others.

Mrs. Bradley Pattern, summoned as a juror and accepted, brought her sewing along.

"Will that interfere with your work as a juror?" the judge asked.

"No, indeed, Judge," replied Mrs. Pattern. "I can hear just as well while I am sewing."

"Very well," said the judge, and the trial proceeded, while Mrs. Pattern darned socks.

HOUSE BLOWN UP; CHILDREN KILLED

Rockville, Mr., Nov. 18.—The home of James Bolton, a young farmer was blown up with dynamite early today and his two small children were instantly killed. Bolton and his wife were seriously injured. The Bolton family were asleep when the explosion occurred and Mrs. Bolton, who was the least injured, ran a half mile in her night dress to notify neighbors. Sheriff Nicholson is investigating a theory that the dynamiting of the Bolton home grew out of a political feud on election day.

TURNS DOWN JOB AS POSTMASTER

Akron, O., Nov. 18.—Twenty minutes after being told over the telephone that President Wilson had named him postmaster at Akron, Frank P. Allen had for the second time turned down the offer.

Allen says that since it means serving only until the next congress convenes, he did not propose to accept the appointment.

While Postmasterships are supposed to be under civil service regulations, it is understood the Republicans will change this method after March 4.

WILSON UNDECIDED ABOUT FUTURE

Washington, Nov. 18.—President Wilson himself has not decided what he will do after March 4, it was authoritatively announced at the White House today. It was said by attaches that in reply to a direct inquiry as to his plans, the president had replied that he had not yet made up his mind. His physical condition, it was stated, was extremely good and is showing improvement right along.

SHOVELS SNOW.

Marion, O., Nov. 18.—Thomas Griffith, of the Brooklyn Dodgers, is visiting his father, David Griffith, at Radnor, and says he's having the time of his life "shoveling snow."

NOT WORKING BUT TIRED OUT

When one feels always tired without working, or suffers from backache, lumbago, rheumatic pains, sore muscles or stiff joints it is not always easy to locate the source of trouble, but very frequently it can be traced to overworked, weakened or diseased kidneys. Mrs. L. Gibson, 12th and Edison St., La Junta, Colo., writes: "My kidneys were giving me a great deal of trouble for some time. I took Foley Kidney Pills and they helped me right away." This Love Song Brings $10,000

The musical extract below is an excerpt of: WHEN YOU'RE GONE I WON'T FORGET, one of the prettiest love songs written since SILVER THREADS AMONG THE GOLD. For the copyright of this ballad, the publisher paid $10,000. This song is the answer song to that stupendous song success which has been sweeping the country: WHEN I'M GONE YOU'LL SOON FORGET and it will become just as popular. The extract of the chorus below was clipped from a copy of the song just received.

When You're Gone I Won't Forget
Refrain
When you're gone I won't forget you,
When from me you're far-a-way, ev'ry night
I will remem-ber, All the things you used to say, All my thoughts will keep on you.

This song will no doubt in great measure throughout the country owing to its wonderful lyric and tuneful and catchy melody which are well blended together. When once heard it will never be forgotten. It is splendidly recorded for Player Pianos and Phonographs.

SELECT TEACHERS FOR NEW OPPORTUNITY SCHOOL IN XENIA

Teachers have been chosen by Professor C. A. Waltz for the instruction of backward children in the new Opportunity School which has been put into operation by Professor Waltz.

The Opportunity School which is being held in the Parish House, is in charge of Miss Isabel McCann. Additional teachers have been assigned to the first grades at McKinley and Lincoln Schools. Miss Evelyn McGivern has taken the position at McKinley School, and Miss Marie Turner of Springfield at Lincoln.

The Opportunity school began operation Monday morning, and the instruction of children that have physical or mental handicaps will be given the full attention of the instructor assigned.

The first grades of McKinley and Lincoln buildings were so large that it was necessary to divide the pupils and engage additional teachers for the two divisions.

A NUMBER OF GOOD RULES FOR A HAPPY MARRIAGE RELATION.

Some wise man has said: "In choosing a wife, look to the breed, for there is as much in blood in men as in horses." And, of course, the advice is equally as good for a woman in looking for a husband. In short, look for good stock—as "Jonathan Edwards was bred in the family of a Connecticut minister"—good stock.

But, when we think of the large per cent of marriages which have proven a failure, as shown by the records of the police courts, we are led to the belief that either the husband or wife was not of good stock, was not well bred. For the divorce records of our country have been pronounced "a national disgrace."

One man, Dr. Frank Crane, has given us twenty rules for a happy marriage, all of which are splendid, but we have only room for a few of them, as follows:

Express Your Affection—Get the habit. It is largely a matter of habit. Do not allow yourself, from pride or sensitiveness or carelessness, to get into the way of suppressing tender sentiments that rise in you. Speak them out. Don't economize on terms of endearment when you are alone with the family. There are children who can never remember seeing father and mother kiss except when about to separate to go on a journey. Love is the one thing it does not do to save. The more you spend the more you have. And the more you express your affection the more normally it grows. If you cut off all the leaves of a tree it will die. Do not take love for granted. Speak it out.

Don't Take Things Too Seriously—Thrice fortunate and blessed are you if you have a sense of humor. More hard knots can be laughed loose than can be untied. Take your love for granted. Don't be forever tinkering with it. Don't dig it up every day or so to see if it is alive. Be cheerful. The world is starved and thirsty for cheer. Nothing makes a husband love his home so much as to know he will find smiles there. Nothing makes a wife seek her husband's side so much as to know there is always sunshine there.

Have Faith—Believe in her—believe in him. Disbelief, doubt, suspicion—that way madness lies. Jealousy has nothing to do with love. It is simply vanity. This is proved by the fact that many are jealous who do not love at all. Whether or not it is true in religion, it is undoubtedly true in marriage, that "he that believeth not shall be damned." All the joy you get out of your companion can be measured by the degree of your faith. And the best known way to make anyone worthy of your trust is to trust him. For if that does not work, nothing will.

Live by Yourselves—As much as possible get away from relatives. It is a law of nature that when fruit is ripe it ought to drop, to separate itself from the tree. Your chances are better, if you "forsake father and mother," also sisters, brothers, aunts, and uncles, and "cleave unto" him. You can work out all the problems of adjustment better if you can be by yourselves. Love each other, be honest, frank, and sincere—and you will not need any advice or help from mother-in-law or grandpa.

Don't Both Get Angry at the Same Time—That was what the minister who married me gave me by way of advice. And it is very dependable counsel. You are both high-strung and sensitive. You both are subject to fits of the dumps. Very well; expect it; prepare for it. But take it one at a time.

Finally, Let No Trouble Get Between You—You will have trouble. It is our common lot. There will be difficulties, disappointments, perplexities, disasters. But keep them out from between you. Face them together. Let it be you two against the world! So long as no hostility, or misunderstanding, or contention, or bitterness creeps in between your two hearts, you can front all the evil in life with cheerful courage.

STEPS TO CONQUEST—TOIL AWHILE—ENDURE AWHILE —NEVER TURN BACK.

It is not the teaching of human history that those who were most successful started with most. There are plenty of examples of persons who started with a great deal and lost it and of others who began with one talent and multiplied it exceedingly. Success or failure is largely a matter of how much you wish to get ahead and how much you are willing to sacrifice. Some are quite unwilling to practice the self-denial needful to a conquest. Any one can admire and envy success when it comes to another and declare it downright luck. It is easy to ignore the fact that the successful one had to pay a big price. He had to work and worry a lot for all that has come to him. The rewards that are his did not fall like manna from the skies. He knows that the old rule holds and that bread is earned by the sweat of the brow. Those who are quite unwilling to work as he has worked are always ready to flock round him demanding a portion of his gain. Of profit-sharing we hear much and talk a great deal, but labor-sharing is not so popular an idea.

Look at the career of him who went onward and upward and you will find that he arrived because he refused to be answered with a "no;" he failed only to fight harder; he was flung, but he got up again. Other men decried his plan, refused him aid, shut their ears and doors to him, went back on a pledged word, ignored a contract, played him false, collapsed beneath a trust they held from him. Yet he did not grow bitter; he did not waste an hour in bewailing the mischances; he did not give up the fight and join the army of vagrants and mendicants who try to sandbag society into supporting them.

No; he kept on; he held that we are "baffled to fight better." Such a man must win in the long run. Defeats are the raw materials of his achievements. He learns a lesson from every adverse experience. An Edison does not reach the goal of an invention without indefatigable repetitions, each teaching him something and each bringing him a little nearer what he seeks. If you could see all there is to see in the career of one who appears to be uniformly successful you would learn how much has gone awry, fallen short, tumbled in ruin on the way to make the result that now seems a "happy accident." Real genius is not granted to the generality of mankind. But a measure of persistence is supplied to the character of all normal persons, and if we use what we have it will increase by the using and the result will surprise us.

HAIR ON THE FACE

Many, many women and girls write to me every day asking what to do to remove superfluous hair. It's very discouraging correspondence, because there's nothing more embarrassing than a noticeable growth of hair on the face, yet there is very little that can be done for it.

The only permanent way to remove superfluous hair is by the electric needle. And that's why the letters about this are discouraging—for many of those who write I've a long distance from the city and cannot get a good electric needle specialist.

If you can, the problem is solved. Some operators use the single needle, an almost unbelievably fine affair that gently pierces the skin where the hair grows and sends in a tiny electric shock which kills the living root so softly and the eggs loosened by soaking the head with vinegar, then while it is still wet with vinegar, go over it with a fine-toothed comb and comb out all these eggs. Shampoo again and dry. Your trouble has probably been that you have destroyed the active nits, but left the eggs to hatch.

Skinny—The easiest way to grow it is to eat fattening foods. If you will take two tablespoonfuls of olive oil in a little grape juice with every meal it will not only make you stouter but it will clear your system of pimples and eventually blackheads. If you take the olive oil about halfway through the meal it will not destroy your appetite for the normal amount of food.

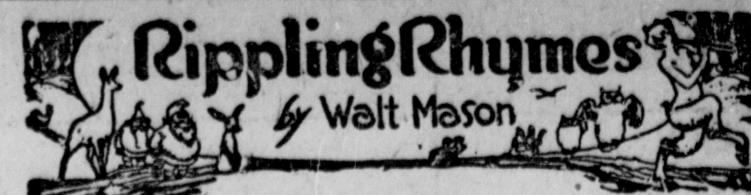

Constant Reader—If you will send me a letter with a self-addressed, stamped envelope enclosed, I will be glad to send you any formula you wish.

EVIDENCE IS COMPLETED.

Evansville, Ind., Nov. 18—All the evidence in the case of Dr. William J. Reavis, charged with having caused the death of Ruby Tabor, 19 years old, last August, through a criminal operation, was completed in Circuit Court. The case will go to the jury by noon today.

JEWELRY STORE LOOTED

Cleveland, Nov. 18.—A lone bandit held up the jewelry store of Charles A. Glick, in the downtown district, and escaped with four diamonds valued at about $500.

UNEXPLAINED.

A man with sideboards may be wise, a shining light to other guys, but ten men out of nine or eight will view him with a deathless hate, and wonder why he'll thus behave when twenty cents will buy a shave. And where's the man who can explain why sideboards don't seem safe and sane? Why do they make most men see red, and yearn to punch the wearer's head? The man who leads a dog around may be a scholar most profound, may be endowed with virtues fine, equipped in any crowd to shine. But men who see him will remark, "He ought to do that after dark; a man should be ashamed, by jing, to lead a bow-wow with a string when there are chores that should be done ere yet the night obscures the sun." I cannot tell the reason why, and yet we all detest the guy who travels parasang and verst, and leads his living wienerwurst. The man who's free with good advice may have a nature sweet and nice; sincerity may mark his rede when he would counsel, guide and plead, but still he keeps us seeing red; we'd bounce a brick upon his head. We are a cranky bunch, say I; we loathe and love and don't know why.

With The Women of Today

Marie Alexandre Lang.

A pretty French girl living in San Francisco won her citizenship through her war service. She is now Marie Alexandre Lang, U. S. A., instead of Mille. Lang of Somewhere in France. Miss Lang served as a telephone operator with the U. S. signal corps in France during the war.

She was recently admitted to citizenship by Federal Judge M. T. Dooling, although the action was opposed by the bureau of naturalization on the ground that Miss Lang was a civil employee and not enlisted in the army.

Miss Lang, however, filed her application under the provisions of the naturalization laws which permit alien members of the army or navy who served during the war and who were honorably discharged to become citizens without making the regular declaration of intention and waiting two years before their cases were heard. Miss Lang served with the A. E. F. thirteen months, having been sent from San Francisco to France.

New Jersey Amends Laws.

The board of education in Paterson, N. J., has amended its laws so that women may be principals of public schools. They take the same examinations as the men are paid the same salaries.

Shall Teachers Marry?

The German government has appealed to the imperial supreme court to pronounce unconstitutional a regulation of the Bavarian government 24 ounce loaves of bread.

forbidding the marriage of female teachers as a violation of the section of the constitution establishing sex equality and has declared null and void all exceptional rules against female government employees. Marriage prohibition was formerly general throughout Germany, but Prussia and other states abolished it.

Bulgaria Getting Back.

Miss Eleanor Markell, author and lecturer, says that Bulgaria is farther advanced in reconstruction work than any of the other Balkan states. She has just returned from a three-months' tour through that section, during which time she had an audience with the king of Bulgaria. He is very democratic, according to Miss Markell.

Queen Mary's Millinery.

All the way from New Zealand, then via New York to me, comes the word that Queen Mary of England has trimmed a hat for her daughter and the daughter in a letter to the Prince of Wales, wrote: "You can imagine what it looks like." This was the sitting out gossip of the prince to a young woman with whom he talked during a dance he was attending in New Zealand.

BREAD PRICES CUT.

Columbus, Nov. 18.—One of the largest chainstore grocery and baking companies here announced a reduction from 13 to 12 cents in twenty-four ounce loaves of bread. Reduction in the price of flour was given as the reason for the price cut. Some bakers here are charging 17 cents a loaf.

WILL WAGE WAR ON VIOLATORS OF DRY ACT IN THIS STATE

Following the arrest and conviction in federal court of H. E. Schmidt trooper of this city, on violation of the Volstead prohibition act, federal prohibition agents are preparing to inaugurate a state-wide crusade in Ohio against grocers, druggists and soft drink saloon proprietors, who have been selling Jamaica ginger, fruit extracts, nerve tonics and patent medicines containing high percentages of alcohol for beverage purposes, according to Federal Prohibition Agent W. J. Mininger, of Cincinnati.

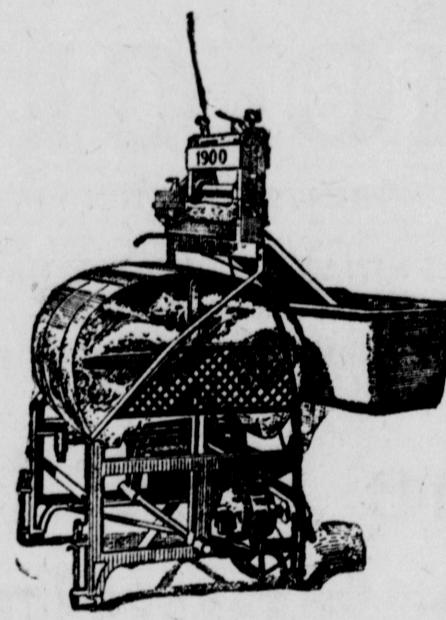

Schmidt was charged with bootlegging on two counts and indicted by the federal grand jury, following an investigation conducted here by Federal Prohibition Agent Faris and Federal Prohibition Director, after a number of witnesses were examined here. The local man changed his plea of not guilty, to guilty, and was fined $300 and costs.

Federal Prohibition Director Shearer ordered that the local grocer be permitted to sell no more extracts unless under bond, following his hearing in this city before being taken before the federal grand jury.

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

He'll steal as much as the entire wheat crop of Kansas, Minnesota and Arkansas; all the corn of Indiana and Maryland; all the potatoes of Maine, Ohio, Illinois—and that's just a drop in the bucket of his theft.

The thief is plant disease! Every year he exacts this crushing toll, devastating whole counties and laying waste mile upon mile of orchards and fields. Mr. O'Brien has studied plant disease in every form, has followed its work of destruction in every part of the country—he knows the successful methods of preventing and combating it. That's why his message is so important to every farmer in the United States.

JAMESTOWN

The ladies of the St. Augustine Church of Jamestown will hold a Thanksgiving market on Wednesday the 24th in the southwest room of the town hall, beginning at 9 a.m.

A large assembly was present at the Bible School Convention on Sunday evening at the Church of Christ. The speakers were the Rev. Eli Lightner, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Jamestown, Chester A. Devoe, Mrs. C. E. Thuma, Mrs. Lile Connor, and Archie Gordon, all of which was instructive and practical. J. Frank Gordon had charge of the round table from which some essential points were emphasized. The Misses Hazel Hutsler and Dorothy Glass had their classes well drilled for their part of the program. Mr. R. C. Birge, minister of the church had the devotional exercise. While Miss Bertha Day very ably presided, in May 1921 the next Convention will be given to the school which makes ten per cent gain of their enrollment. The music was splendid led by D. E. Bailey.

The relatives and many friends in Jamestown of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Clemens of Dayton, are sorry indeed, to learn of Mrs. Clemens' serious illness.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Paullin are planning to move to Los Angeles, Cal., next month. Their son, Lawrence who is now in Florida will join his parents at New Orleans and go with them to their new home. The family have a host of warm friends here who are loath to see them leave for the west.

Mrs. J. H. Perry has returned home from Rariden, where she has been for some time owing to the illness of her mother, Mrs. McBride.

Miss Anna Curry of Erie, Pa., who has been the guest of Dr. and Mrs. J. H. French, will go to Columbus this week where she will visit with friends on her way home.

The Rev. and Mrs. Willis A. Cooper most delightfully entertained the ministers of the town with their wives with a six o'clock dinner on Tuesday evening. Those who shared their hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Lorimer, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Birge, Miss Bertha Day. It was a happy thought of Mr. and Mrs. Cooper to give this social evening. As one minister is leaving town and another has just come.

Levi Jenks has returned home from the Magnetic Springs at Delaware, where he went for treatment.

Mrs. F. W. Ogan entertained a number of friends on Wednesday afternoon. The honor guests being

Mrs. W. M. Lorimer and Miss Mattie Williams, who soon leaves for her winter home at Melbourne, Fla. She will be accompanied by Mrs. Margaret Crain and daughter, Miss Ma belle, of Xenia.

Mrs. J. A. Bevan is spending several days in Springfield as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Myers.

Mrs. Jesse Taylor and Mrs. Ernest Thuma were in Springfield on Monday attending a district board meeting of the home missionary society of the M. E. Church. Both being members of the board. The object of the meeting being to plan the work for the coming year. Mrs. Ladine Layton, the president, made many good suggestions, the details to be worked out. The annual district convention will be held at the M. E. Church in Jamestown some time during the month of June.

Mrs. W. H. Palmer has gone to Xenia for a few days visit with Mrs. Charles A. Davis, and from there she goes to Cincinnati to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. James Tull and family.

Mrs. Jesse Taylor has for her guest, her cousin, Mrs. Clare McKinley of Tulsa, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Zimmerman entertained on Tuesday evening with seven tables of 500. The hostess served a delicious refreshment course during the evening.

Mrs. James Reed of Newport, Ky., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cole. Tuesday was the seventh wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Cole. Mrs. Reed being invited for the occasion.

Mrs. Roy Webb and two children Bertha and Betty Jane of near Xenia, are spending the week with her mother, Mrs. James Roberts.

Mrs. E. E. Breakfield will be the hostess to the members of the Home Missionary Society of the M. E. Church on Thursday afternoon.

Ends Stubborn Coughs in a Hurry

For real effectiveness, this old home-made remedy has no equal.

Easily and cheaply prepared.

You'll never know how quickly a bad cough can be controlled with this famous old home-made remedy. Anyone who has coughed all day and all night, will say that the immediate relief given is almost like magic. It takes but a moment to prepare, and really there is nothing better for coughs.

Into a pint bottle, put 2½ ounces of Pine; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a pint. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, the full pint saves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, and gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly, and tastes pleasant—children like it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membranes in all the air passages. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm thin out and then disappear altogether. A day's use will usually break up an ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness, and bronchial asthma.

Pine is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, the most reliable remedy for throat and chest ailments.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pine" with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pine Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

SAYS HIS PRESCRIPTION HAS POWERFUL INFLUENCE OVER RHEUMATISM

Mr. James H. Allen who suffered for many years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called "rheumatic poisons," were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally, he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. Sayre & Underwood, of New York, agents for Allentown in this vicinity, with whom he turned the purchase money to all who state they received no benefit.

Eruptions On Hands Also. Would Itch. Cuticura Heals.

"My trouble began with sore eruptions breaking out on my face and hands. They were hard, large and red and full of corruption. They would itch and burn, and I would sit up all night, and my face would burn like fire. I could not put my hands in water or do my work.

"The trouble lasted three years before I used Cuticura. I found relief in a few days, and when I had used two cakes of Soap and two boxes of Ointment I was healed." (Signed) Miss Marie Haag, 133 South B. St., Hamilton, Ohio, Dec. 1, 1919.

Stop Thief!

There's a thief abroad in the land—this very year he will steal two billion dollars from the American farmer, says Harry R. O'Brien, in a helpful and interesting series of articles coming in

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

He'll steal as much as the entire wheat crop of Kansas, Minnesota and Arkansas; all the corn of Indiana and Maryland; all the potatoes of Maine, Ohio, Illinois—and that's just a drop in the bucket of his theft.

The thief is plant disease! Every year he exacts this crushing toll, devastating whole countries and laying waste miles upon miles of orchards and fields. Mr. O'Brien has studied plant disease in every form, followed its work of destruction in every part of the country—he knows the successful methods of preventing and combating it. That's why his message is so important to every farmer in the United States.

And since some day you're bound to subscribe for the great national farm-service weekly, you'd best order today through me and get all the articles of this unique series!

YEAR'S PROGRAM IS DISCUSSED AT D. A. R. MEETING WEDNESDAY

The Catherine Greene Chapter of the D. A. R. met at the home of Mrs. R. S. Kingsbury, Wednesday afternoon.

A talk was given at the meeting by Mrs. William Wilson, state regent of the D. A. R., upon the different projects planned by the chapter.

The most important topic discussed was the raising of $300 by the chapter, which is to be contributed to the Schaeffler School at Cleveland for the purpose of training a young foreign girl who is under the care of the local chapter. The girl is being trained in this school in the work of Americanizing the other foreign children found in the congested districts of larger cities.

"Americanization" has been chosen by the D. A. R. chapter for the year's topic, and this will be studied and the work of the chapter will deal with the foreign problem.

Mrs. Wilson also dealt with the plans for the pageant which is to be given by the local chapter in the spring. The pageant will be in celebration of the third centennial of the landing of the "Mayflower." This event has been celebrated in different cities over the country.

It was stated by Mrs. Wilson that the National D. A. R. is planning the placing of a picture in the Museum of Paris which will depict a ship upon the ocean with its convoy. The picture, which will be painted by direction of the D. A. R., will be a portrayal of the landing of the Mayflower.

The local D. A. R. members have been contributing to the southern mountain schools, and at the meeting Wednesday, money was appropriated by individual contributions, for aid to the schools in which the chapter is interested.

The Xenia D. A. R. has joined with the state organization in planning to contribute to a girls' dormitory to be erected at Miami College, Oxford, Ohio. The dormitory will be erected in memory of Caroline Scott Harrison, wife of President Harrison. Mrs. Harrison was one of the first students educated at Oxford College.

NOT HANGED AS REPORTED

New York, Nov. 18.—John Shismanian, of Fresno, Cal., former member of the Kentucky National Guard, who was reported to have been hanged by the French at Adana, has been released and is now in Damacus.

WAS BADLY RUN-DOWN FROM PNEUMONIA

Mrs. Washburn quickly regained her strength and flesh.

"I had grippe, followed by pneumonia. It left me with a terrible soreness in my chest, constant pain in my throat and so weak and nervous I could neither eat nor sleep. I had a chill every morning."

"One day a young man told me how Milks Emulsion had got him out of bed and built him up after he had been run down by a skeleton. I gave up by the doctors. So I tried it. I have gained in strength, appetite and flesh, sleep better than I have for years, am doing all my own work again and feel like a new person."

"The beauty about Milks Emulsion is that it doesn't wear out like most things, and is so pleasant to take. It is a food as well as a medicine, and builds up the blood and tissues. It surely put new blood in my veins and I have the healthiest color I ever had!"—Mrs. M. Washburn, El Centro, Cal.

It costs nothing to try Milks Emulsion. It will build you up more quickly, surely than anything else.

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores appetite, stimulates bowel action, promotes appetite and puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are quickly relieved.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee. Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 75c and $1.50 per bottle. ARE YOU NEGLECTING THAT COUGH OR COLD

No one can afford to neglect a cough or cold. Neglect often causes serious results. The best time to doctor is when the first indications of a cough or cold appear. Coughing weakens the delicate membrane of the throat, bronchial tubes and lungs. This makes a fertile field for the development of germs. The cold, grip or tonsilitis germs should be killed before they have time to get imbedded into this delicate membrane. Get three ounces of Glandine Pine, 60 cents. Mix this with enough syrup of honey to make a pint and you have a safe, sure and reliable remedy to use. It takes hold of a cough in a hurry. The first dose opens the air cells and makes you breathe deep and easy. Glandine Pine is easily prepared. Directions accompany each bottle. It tastes well and can be given to young children.

Don't be careless, but begin to safeguard yourself against cough and colds. A dependable remedy is a great deal to any family. Remember the name, Glandine Pine. You can get it of your druggist or it will be sent you by the Glando-Aid Co., Fort Wayne, Ind.

MUSICAL COMEDY TO PLAY VICTORY 3 DAYS

The sensational musical comedy success, Victor Herbert's "The Girl in the Spotlight," is the attraction for three days starting Thursday, November 18, at the Victory Theater with a matinee on Saturday. Mr. Herbert will be remembered as the composer of "Angel Face," and George W. Lederer who produced that play is the producer also of "The Girl in the Spotlight."

The show will be given with the entire original New York production and cast as soon at the Knickerbocker theater, where it played for several months. The critics of that city pronounced it the best musical comedy seen there in many years. "The Girl in the Spotlight" fairly bubbles over with Herbert's inimitable melodies. There is a world of wholesome comedy, wonderful artistic and eccentric dancing.

Among the notable players are Hal Skelly, the elongated eccentric comedian, late of "The Night Boat"; Eddie Dowling, late of Ziegfeld's "Follies"; Nat Carr, the famous character comedian, Ben Forbes, a new and wonderful tenor. Mary Milburn, the most sensational prima donna on the stage and proclaimed "the find" of a decade.

DEMAND FOR COAL IN XENIA INCREASES WITH COLD SNAP; MORE CARS NEEDED

On the question of whether the release of cars used previous to November 15 for shipment of coal to the lakes will improve retail coal conditions, depends the prospects of local dealers of keeping this city heated during this present cold spell.

At present car conditions are about normal, or in other words just what they have been for the last several months. The prospects of the present snow storm tying up railway traffic and hindering freight service is just one other matter to agitate the minds of retail dealers.

At present the demand for coal locally, is large, according to the dealers. The recent cold weather, and the supplementary snow storm, have served to flood the offices of coal dealers with requests for coal. They are being supplied to some extent, although it is next to impossible to fill all the orders as they are sent in. On the other hand, the dealers are taking orders one day for the next, and the snow storm is slowing up delivery on the orders taken.

Pocahontas' and good grade lump coals, are not extinct but dealers in most cases have to pay a premium to secure them. Pocahontas, if it is found here, will bring $13 a ton, which is now a top price retail for the fuel.

Cheaper grades are being sold at $10 to $10.50 with promise of some at $9.25 later.

Dealers who have been explaining to customers for several months that many of the cars that could be used for shipping here are being used for shipment to the lakes, are hoping that the release of cars for that purpose will have the effect of supplying the car shortage immediately. However, the approach of winter and the necessarily slowing up of freight traffic may not make these cars available for sometime.

In Ohio 38 per cent of the cars have been used for this lake shipment. In Kentucky the percentage is 20 per cent while in West Virginia 20

SPRING VALLEY

Mrs. Hugh Harper, Misses Hannah and Mary Agnes Harper, Effie Conley and Prof. Elmer Barr attended the County C. E. Convention held at Osborn Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Walton, Mrs. George Benson and Mrs. J. C. Mason attended the Friends Quarterly Meeting at New Burlington, Saturday.

Murray Kenworthy, executive secretary of Wilmington Yearly Meeting, preached at the Friends church here Sunday.

A number of members of the Christian Endeavor here attended their rally at New Burlington Sunday afternoon.

Miss Ruth Fulkerson gave a very prettily appointed shower Friday night in honor of Miss Laura Barley. The house was decorated with Japanese lanterns and huge parasols. Ruth Emma Hess, of Dayton, dressed as a Japanese maiden, met the guests at the door. A number of contests were held. The prize winners presented them to the bride. Delicious

CURED HIS, PILES

Now 88 Years Old But Works At Trade of Blacksmith and Feels Younger Since Piles Are Gone.

The oldest active blacksmith in Michigan is still pounding his anvil in the town of Homer—thanks to my internal method for treating piles.

Mr. Jacob Lyon, Homer, Mich.

I wish that you could hear me tell of his many experiences with oils, salves, dilators, etc., before he tried my method. Here is a letter just received from him:

Mr. E. R. Page, Marshall, Mich.

Dear Sir—I want you to know what your treatment has done for me. I had suffered with piles for many years and used suppositories and "winds" of tractions, etc., never got relief until I tried yours. Am now completely cured. Although I am now 88 years old, and the oldest active blacksmith in Michigan, I feel years younger since the piles have left me. You will surely recommend it to me. I know who suffer this way. You can use my letter any way you wish and I hope it will lead others to try this wonderful remedy.

Yours truly, J. L. LYON.

There are thousands of afflicted people suffering with piles who have never yet tried the one sensible way of treating them.

Don't buy out. Don't waste money on foolish salves, ointments, dilators, etc., but send today for a free trial of my internal method for the healing of piles.

No matter whether your case is of long standing or recent development—whether it is occasional or permanent—you should send for this free trial treatment.

No matter where you live—no matter what your age or occupation—if you are troubled with piles my method will relieve you promptly.

This special offer of my treatment is too important for you to neglect a single day. Write now. Send no money. Simply mail the coupon—but do this now—TODAY.

refreshments were served. Little Ruth Emma Hess with many bows, then presented the bride with the gifts which consisted of silver and crystal.

Mrs. Wm. Hartinger and Mrs. J. W. Fulkerson entertained the Embroidery Club Tuesday afternoon at a parcel shower, in honor of Miss Laura Barley. The afternoon was spent hemming towels for the bride-to-be.

refreshments consisting of a delicious salad course were served.

SCHOOL CLOSES

The Catholic School was forced to close for Wednesday and Thursday on account of repairs that were necessary to be made on the furnace of the school.

HAD TO HOLD TO SIDE OF BED UPON RISING EVERY MORNING

Back hurt so bad couldn't straighten up till he had walked round a while. Kidneys caused the trouble, but Dreco set them right.

"Many a morning I've had to hold to the side of the bed in order to get up, then walk around for a while before I could straighten up," said Mr. Albert Logan, a farmer living near Athens, Ohio.

"For five years I've been in miserable health. My kidneys were weak and I'd be up five and six times during the night from them. I had terrible pains in my back. My liver was lazy, and I'd get so dizzy some times I'd have to stop a few minutes till it passed off. My stomach was also out of order and often swelled up like an army balloon from the gas in it. I was constipated and so nervous I couldn't sleep much."

"Things are different now, though for I jump right out of bed into my clothes, and ready for a big breakfast. Don't have to get up during the night a single time; bowels acting regularly; no more dizzy spells, and I sleep like a log. All this change was brought on by taking Dreco, and I think it the greatest medicine I ever saw."

All druggists now sell Dreco and it is being especially introduced in Xenia at Sohn's Drug Store.

FAILURE OF HOUSTON BANK ATTRIBUTED TO LACK OF SELLING

Both unexpected and surprising to many Xenians, was the announcement made last Saturday, that the Houston bank at South Charleston, a privately owned bank, had closed its doors.

The bank for years has been a prominent financial institution in this section of the state, and has been the head of the business for the operations of the Houston Farms in Madison and Clark counties. Foster B. Houston, who is trustee for 10,000 acres of land left by Leon and Edwin Houston, is owner of the Houstonia Creamery, a solid business institution, of the South Charleston newspaper, the Houston Inn, the J. C. Jones Medicine Company, which makes and sells the Houstonia Liniment, and other business interests, is president of the bank.

Mr. Houston attributes the bank's failure to the fact that farmers have failed to move their corn crops. All of the bank's loans are on good security, he says, and he has promised to sell all of his land to liquidate the bank. The resources are given as $500,000 including loans amounting to $833,638.06, while deposits are estimated at $300,000. Major Chas. W. Miller, liquidating agent of the state banking department, is in charge of the bank.

As the bank is a private institution the depositors have a first lien on the assets of the bank and shall share in the general assets of the entire Houston estate with the general creditors.

BELIEVE TURKEYS WILL BE SCARCE

Hopes that the H. C. of L. was gradually becoming weaker, were given another jolt this week when it was learned that another popular article had taken an upward climb in price.

In other words, turkeys have increased about five cents on the pound, since last season, the cause being laid to the scarcity of the bird according to local dealers.

Although local poultrymen do not report the price as fixed, it is assured that turkeys "are not what they used to be." They will sell this season at about 38 cents a pound and since the grocers have not made their purchase, there is a possibility that if the demand is high, the price will go accordingly.

RECIPES FOR A DAY.

Very Good Cookies—Take one cup white sugar, one cup brown sugar, mix well with one cup butter, add two well beaten eggs, one cup sour milk, two teaspoons soda (level spoons, not heaping), flour to stiffen; flavor to suit. Roll out, bake in medium oven.

Stuffed Apples—Bake tart buttered apples until tender, but not broken. Scoop out centers and mix with new pickle relish and mayonnaise. Chill and serve on lettuce leaves.

Crown of Pork With Onions—Take pieces containing six ribs from each side rack of pork, having two pieces same length and height. Remove back bone and make an incision between the ribs, trim each rib above the eye as for French chops; turn the rib bones outside and the eyes of chops inside and sew the two pieces together. Mix cup of sausage meat with cup of bread crumbs, add beaten egg and additional seasoning if needed. Put crown in roaster and sausage mixture in open space inside the crown, cover the bones with buttered paper, dredge with flour, salt and pepper, and roast about two and one-half hours. It is more than one or one and a half hours.

About Blanching Macaroni and Spaghetti—Put an earthenware pot filled with water on the fire, add two tablespoons of salt and boil. Put in three-quarters pound of fresh macaroni, twisting it around carefully so as not to break it. Boil for seventeen minutes, then remove from the fire; drain and put it in cold water; drain again, and it is ready for use. Spaghetti is blanched the same way.

Sautee a delicate brown enough small onions to fill the crown, add stock and let cook until tender, glazing the onions with stock as it cooks away. Remove crown to serving dish, place onions in center and serve.

ITALIAN DISHES.

Macaroni and Spaghetti Paste—For every quarter pound of flour use one egg and two tablespoons of warm salted water. Take as much flour as needed, made a hole in the center and put in the water and eggs. Beat them up with a spoon, mixing the flour in gradually, then knead well. Roll the paste into very thin sheets and place them on a clean cloth to dry for half an hour. This paste will not keep for days, and must always be put into boiling water or broth to cook. If soaked before cooking the flavor is spoiled.

Macaroni a la Creme—Boil three-quarters pound of fresh macaroni in plenty of salted water until tender, with an onion stuck with two cloves and a tablespoon of butter. Drain it well (taking out the onion) and put it back in a saucerman with one-half cup butter, three ounces grated Swiss cheese and four ounces grated Parmesan cheese, a small pinch of nutmeg and a pinch of pepper. Add one-half pint of veal broth and four or five tablespoons of cream. Cook for five minutes, stirring well and serve hot.

About Blanching Macaroni and Spaghetti—Put an earthenware pot filled with water on the fire, add two tablespoons of salt and boil. Put in three-quarters pound of fresh macaroni, twisting it around carefully so as not to break it. Boil for seventeen minutes, then remove from the fire; drain and put it in cold water; drain again, and it is ready for use. Spaghetti is blanched the same way.

"The Woman He Married"

BY JANE PHELPS

THE END OF GOLF GAMES

CHAPTER 16

Dick was full of vitality. He never minded how hard he had to work, but he loved to play just as hard. For a long time he had said he could not afford to do the things out of which he formerly got so much fun, and the excitement he seemed to crave. Before the baby came he played golf on Saturday afternoons and we went to the theatre, occasionally to good vaudeville shows, and the movies. But since Junior's arrival we had been out very little and he had given up his golf entirely.

"Can't afford it," was his answer when I spoke of it. I was too blind to see that his need for pleasure, innocent ones, for exercise to which he had been accustomed, was storming within him. Even had I seen it probably would have paid no attention. I was too busy, too engrossed with home baby and my attempts to make myself attractive.

"You must earn more, then you can take up your golf and tennis again," I told him, not realizing that a certain joyousness in life with Dick an actual need, and that, lacking it, he worked even harder to get rid of the surplus energy. He was just as kind, just as loving as ever, but some way he seemed not to take the interest in our home, in little things, that he formerly had.

After mother left, I had for a time acted upon her advice. I had religiously gone to market and brought my purchases home with me. But as I commenced to try to fix up my wardrobe, I hated to spend the money for food and household bills. So I once more commenced to use the telephone and gradually returned to my old way, letting the bills lap over from one week or month until the next.

I was very vain about my hair, and fussy over my hats. Often I bought expensive feathers or trimmings to remodel them, instead of paying the grocer or the butcher. My shoes were also a big item. Shoes were extravagantly high, yet I bought several pairs that year. I had a small foot and was proud of being always well shod. As I bought only the latest styles at the best shops I necessarily paid a big price for them.

I was like so many other women in my desires, women who paid no attention to the inflated prices caused by profiteering, but who wanted to buy, no matter what the cost. And it was women like me, young wives of men whose salaries were wholly inadequate to satisfy their desire, and the wives of the laboring men who filled the stores and exclusive shops.

The really wealthy people had not joined in this wild orgy of buying. They knew values too well to be cajoled into paying five or six times what a thing was worth. They were the ones who sat back and declared they would not purchase at inflated values they would go without until times were normal.

It was women like me—foolish women whose love of self-adornment would not let them rest content to wait—who not only kept the shops going, but who kept prices up to an almost prohibitive peak.

When Dick came home I had baby all ready. Then came the unthought-of task of getting that clumsy carriage down three flights of stairs. I took the front wheels, and Dick managed the heavier part. We didn't dare put Junior in until we had tried to get it down empty once, so Dick had to go back up and get him.

"Looks like a million dollars," he remarked, puffing a little, as he laid Junior in among the pillows.

"He will when I get some hand-somer pillows for him. Those look so common beside his cloak."

That's right!" I heard Dick say, "Damn I had no wish for a controversy over his mother's and sister's extravagance and lack of sense in sending us handsome presents, I only hoped they would keep it up.

You see I am trying to be perfectly honest. I may help some other young wife who is situated as I was. If I do, perhaps I will have paid in some degree for my great mistakes.
